Sidney Ratepayers Give Green Light To Village Incorporation In Brisk Vote

—Five Commissioners Are Elected

Sidney ratepayers thronged to the polls in impressive numbers on Thursday, Dec. 11, elected five commissioners to serve them during the next year and voted overwhelming approval of the recent incorporation of their village by provincial Order-in-Council.

Despite heavy rains which fell all day, no less than 404 ballots were cast by 599 registered voters.

Elected for two-year terms were H. Bradley, S. G. Watling and H. Fox; and for one-year terms R. C. Martman and G. L. Baal.

Mr. Baal and J. Bilgeri tied for fifth place and the returning officer, Village Clerk J. A. Hymers, cast his ballot for Mr. Baal.

Are Returned

Mr. Fox and Mr. Baal had both served on the interim commission which has directed village affairs since its incorporation last October. They were the only two existing commissioners to seek election. The commission chairman for 1953 will be elected at the statutory meeting in January.

Issues of the election were made clear cut by two manifestos issued prior to December 11. One group, which received a mandate from the voters, defended the provincial government's incorporation of the village. Other gentlemen called for a larger area and a vote on incorporation to be taken. Two candidates issued no public statements before the election.

Casts First Ballot

First ballot in the election was cast by G. A. Gardner, an interim commissioner and chief of the Sidney and North Saanich Volunteer Fire Department. The last one was cast just before 7 p.m. by Wilfred Tripp.

Returning Officer Hymers to The Review spoke of his pleasure at the manner in which candidates and electors conducted themselves during the day. "It was a most easy election to conduct," he said.

Supporters of the different candidates were busy during the day driving electors to the poll in the village hall. The continuous rain made walking disagreeable but failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the voters.

With the closing of the poll, Mr. Hymers commenced the ballot count, assisted by the deputy returning officer, Mrs. J. S. Gurton. A number of candidates and some of their agents were present during the count and Mr. Hymers' rulings on different ballots were accepted without question. The count was complete by 9:30 p.m.

J. J. White, chairman of the interim commission which will lay down the reins of office in the New Year, has announced that newly elected commissioners will be invited to sit in on all commission conferences during the remainder of December.

NEW NAMES

Three new road names have been added in Central Saanich. Senamus Drive is located near Mount Newton; Gliddon Road is part of the old East Saanich Road at Keating; and Derrinberg Road is adjacent to the Masonic Hall at Saanichton.

APARTMENT HOUSE

Next stop in our Ganges "city" exploration was in a back "street" at an abandoned jam factory which was in process of becoming an apartment house. The Bowdens were converting it. They took us first into their own small apartment furnished in rubbed grey fir; then to another being finished for George Potts, the house-to-house salesman of small goods. Litchfield Bowden was a carpenter from Devonshire who had married the daughter of a Cornish sailor, Thomas Pengelly.

TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE TO STUDY SCHOOL BUS SCHEDULE

Controversial subject of student transportation in the vicinity of Brentwood was aired again at Monday's meeting of the school board in the Sidney office. A delegation of parents addressed the board and pleaded for schedule changes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Walker, of Wallace Drive, urged that the bus picked up children too early in the morning and returned them too late in the afternoon. They asked that the schedule be altered.

J. Vanderkracht suggested that the bus should not discharge pupils on West Saanich Road at Brentwood but turn into the school yard where they could alight at a safer point.

Mrs. Milligan contended that under present schedule of the bus her child was away from home for 10 hours. This was far too long, she contended.

Mrs. Phyllis Meyer added her voice to the plea that the bus picked up the children too early in the morning.

On motion of Trustee R. Sinkinson, seconded by Trustee R. C. Derrinberg, it was agreed unanimously to refer the matter to the transportation committee for further study and to ask it to report back to the board in the New Year. The delegation then withdrew.

Amendment Carries

The problem was discussed again briefly later in the meeting. Trustee G. F. Gilbert expressed the view that the bus driver be asked to turn into Brentwood school grounds to discharge primary pupils. He proposed.

MRS. ROLSTON IS CONCERNED

Saanich school board has received a communication from Hon. Tilly Rolston, minister of education, expressing concern over increasing costs of operating schools and urging that the board ensure that its 1953 budget be not increased over 1952.

Chairman G. L. Chatterton replied to the minister, suggesting to her that if teachers' salaries were increased, the school district's budget would certainly increase. He urged that Mrs. Rolston send a copy of her letter to the Saanich Teachers' Association.

No further communication has been received from Mrs. Rolston.

sent a formal motion along this line which was seconded by Trustee L. T. Wadhams. Trustee Sydney Pickles countered with an amendment, suggesting that this matter be turned over to the transportation committee with power to act. The amendment was seconded by Trustee Sinkinson.

By vote the amendment was carried and the motion lost.

MAY FINISH TWO SCHOOLS

Trustees of Saanich School District No. 63 learned on Monday evening that approximately $42,000 remains in their school building bank account. The sum of $750,000 was raised more than a year ago by by-law for school construction purposes and practically all of it has been expended.

After studying the figures, Trustee G. F. Gilbert moved that the 1953 board be urged to complete Brentwood and Sidney schools with activity rooms, as provided in the by-law. He felt that there was sufficient money available for this purpose.

His motion was seconded by Trustee Derrinberg and carried unanimously.

Swan Song of Taxes Is Sung

Road and poll tax in Central Saanich are on the way out.

At a meeting of the council on Tuesday morning a by-law repealing both taxes was introduced. The final reading will be given at the next council meeting when the repeal will take effect as from the beginning of the New Year.

Other municipalities have taken this same step when it has been found that the revenue derived from the taxation failed to merit the enforcement of the taxes.

ISLAND PUPILS VISIT SIDNEY

More than 20 junior pupils of James Island school, under the direction of their principal, B. Zarzy, visited The Review office last Wednesday and studied the complex processes by which newspapers are prepared for publication and printed. The children were told in detail of the operations of the various machines by the operators in charge.

Following their visit to The Review, the children visited Sidney Cold Storage where G. A. Gardner showed them through the plant. They emerged shivering and headed for home by boat.

NO CHANGE IN CENTRAL SAANICH

Central Saanich Council will continue through next year unchanged. Voters of the new municipality rallied behind Reeve Sydney Pickles on Saturday and returned him to office with two-thirds of the votes cast. Heading the polls in the contest for council seats was Councillor Willard W. Michell, who will serve another two years. Councillor Ray Lamont also won the support of the voters, when he finished up with a close margin over Candidate A. H. O. Bolster.

At the same time voters gave a sweeping "yes" to the provision of library services from Greater Victoria libraries. Of those in favor of the service, the majority looked to a travelling bookmobile to provide facilities within the municipality.

A Heavy Vote

By Saturday evening it was evident that a large turn-out of voters was to be a significant feature of the election. When the polls closed at 8 p.m. about 70 per cent of electors had cast their ballots. It represented a heavier vote than in any other municipality on the lower island.

Funeral Chapel Here

Announcement that they will open a modern funeral chapel in Sidney in the near future was made to The Review this week by Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Cline, formerly of Duncan. Mr. and Mrs. Cline have purchased the Fourth Street residence of John Milling and are already residing there.

They plan to make a substantial addition to the building which will accommodate a modern chapel. Other equipment is now on order.

Mr. Cline operated a funeral home in Ponoka, Alta., for many years. He was an active member of the Alberta Funeral Directors' Association and a licensed embalmer.

Come To Sidney

Four years ago he retired from business and has since resided at Duncan. Earlier this year he decided to re-establish himself as an undertaker on Vancouver Island and assessed all parts of the Island before deciding on a definite location. Two months ago Mr. and Mrs. Cline visited Sidney and learned from a copy of The Review that the village had just been incorporated. "We knew that any community which had just been incorporated would go ahead so we decided at once to settle here."

Construction will be launched shortly on the chapel addition and the new business will be opened early in the New Year.

NEWNHAM IS PRESIDENT OF SOCREDS

Appointment of F. H. Newnham of Ganges, as president of the Social Credit League of Nanaimo and the Islands constituency has been confirmed. This action was taken on Nov. 27 following a report received from W. N. Chant, of Victoria, Social Credit official.

The board now consider that Mr. Newnham is the properly qualified president, The Review is informed.

CLUB DIRECTOR

C. J. Reimer, well known Sidney farmer, was elected a director of the Vancouver Island Ayrshire Club at the seventh annual meeting of the organization in Duncan, last week.

C.P.R. Will Connect With Sidney Early In New Year

—A Cheery Announcement

A campaign of many long months which stretched into years came to an apparent happy conclusion this week with the announcement by eastern officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway that their modern steamer, "Princess Elaine" will extend its Gulf Islands service to include the port of Sidney as soon as wharf extensions are concluded here.

The wharf extension job was launched by MacDonald Construction Co. more than a month ago and it is confidently expected that the work will be completed by March of next year.

The Review was informed of the C.P.R.'s policy decision by Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., member of parliament for this district, who has long pressed for this transportation development.

Meanwhile, officials of the Village of Sidney and of the Sidney and North Saanich Chamber of Commerce are now busy planning a gay celebration here to welcome the Elaine on her inaugural voyage to Vancouver Island. At present she operates on regular schedule between Vancouver and various Gulf Island ports.

C.P.R. Policy

In answer to General Pearkes, the C.P.R.'s general traffic, passenger manager in Montreal, wrote the following communication:

"For many years the Canadian Pacific operated the Motor Princess between Sidney and Steveston on the mainland but the earnings were not sufficient to meet the operating ex-

TO INVITE SUGGESTIONS FOR TRUSTEE

Members of the board of Saanich School District No. 63 in session on Monday evening took stock of the vacancy on the board which is looming in 1953 because no one was nominated in Central Saanich municipality to take the place being vacated at the end of the year by Trustee Sydney Pickles.

After congratulating Mr. Pickles on his re-election as reeve of the municipality, Chairman G. L. Chatterton urged that the secretary be asked to write many Central Saanich organizations and invite nominations for a suitable school trustee. These suggestions could be available for the board's first meeting in 1953, and the new trustee chosen. It was agreed to follow this procedure.

Inaugural meeting for 1953 was scheduled for the evening of January 5, 1953.

TUITION FEE OF $150 IS SUGGESTED

Department of education has advised Saanich School District to charge $150 per annum tuition to pupils from other districts who attend schools in this area. The board will bill Sooke School District this amount for educating a child of that district in Prospect Lake school.

Trustee Sinkinson was asked to determine whether four children attending Cordova Bay school reside in this school district. Chairman G. L. Chatterton will investigate the case of two pupils in Royal Oak school. There are two doubtful cases attending Brentwood school which will be investigated as well.

Trustees in session on Monday evening agreed that all such pupils be allowed to finish their school terms in Saanich schools but that efforts be made to collect tuition fees from either other school districts or their parents.

pense and the vessel was diverted to another service. Despite this, it is our plan, at the moment, to have the Vancouver-Gulf Islands steamer call at Sidney as soon as the enlarged wharf at that point is completed. Whether or not the new service will be perpetuated depends upon the extent to which it is patronized.

"The provincial government now subsidizes the Cy Peck which operates a service between Swartz Bay and Fulford Harbor, but although a very heavy deficit has consistently been incurred by the Canadian Pacific in operating a service between Vancouver and the Gulf Islands, we receive no subsidy. You will appreciate it is quite a strain on our resources to continue to operate a ship when the crew exceeds the number of passengers carried for the greater part of the year.

"It is essential to the welfare of the communities on Vancouver Island that they should have an adequate steamship service to the mainland of British Columbia and the Canadian Pacific Railway has made every effort to meet their needs as well as to provide for possible expansion and development on the Island. The company has spent no less than $12,000,000 in the past few years on the construction of the Princess Marguerite, Patricia and Nanaimo, and in addition, a further large amount for a new terminal at Nanaimo. A firm of naval architects in Montreal is now preparing plans and specifications for a new ship designed to carry rail cars, as well as passengers, automobiles and trucks, between Nanaimo and Vancouver, and we expect to place contract with the shipyard for its construction early in the New Year.

We further hope to add another fine vessel to our fleet in the next few months to handle our Alaska cruises, as well as to relieve ships now in service between Vancouver and the mainland for their periodic overhaul."

MRS. SUTTON NEW HEAD OF TEMPLE

The regular meeting of Victory Temple No. 36, Pythian Sisters, was held in the K. of P. Hall on Tuesday, Dec. 9, with 31 members attending. Most Excellent Chief Mrs. M. Chappuis presided.

Election of officers for 1953 resulted as follows: most excellent chief, Mrs. J. Sutton; senior, Mrs. C. Nunn; junior, Mrs. A. A. Cormack; manager, Mrs. W. Cowell; secretary, Mrs. E. Sapsford; treasurer, Mrs. A. O. Berry; protector, Mrs. D. Robinson; guard, Mrs. W. Skinner. Past chief will be Mrs. M. Chappuis.

Installing officer will be Mrs. W. Waters; degree captain, Mrs. C. Nunn; press correspondent, Mrs. W. Lumley; pianist, Mrs. A. B. Smith; trustee for three-year term, Mrs. J. D. Butler, and for one-year term, Mrs. S. Gordon.

The auditing committee was appointed, the members being Mrs. W. Skinner, Mrs. W. Hetman and Mrs. W. Lumley.

The tombola, donated by Mrs. B. Dowcott, was won by Mrs. W. Cowell.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served.

TRAFFIC HEAVY OVER WEEK-END

Traffic over the week-end through Patricia Bay Airport was particularly heavy as a result of the restricted sailing of the Chinook between Victoria and Seattle. A number of extra flights were added to the normal schedule in order to cope with the unaccustomed rush of traffic.

MARKED BY MR. AND MRS. JARRETT

Dencross Terrace was the scene of unusual activity on Friday afternoon, December 12, as cars and pedestrians converged on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jarrett who were celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary.

The rooms were artistically decorated by the popular hostess and over 60 guests were served from tables bulging with delectable viands, the serving being gracefully handled by Mesdames Wiltshire, J. Mason, Milner and May. In addition to congratulatory messages from Chili, Australia, United States, across Canada and around the Saanich Peninsula, Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett were the recipients of several valuable and useful presents.

World Travellers

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett were married at Catherine Hill Bay, New South Wales (on Friday) December 12, 1902, and landed in Victoria, February, 1904. Having travelled two and three-quarter times around the world and criss-crossed here and there, they can claim to be seasoned travellers. Consistent with the mining business, the wanderlust streak and the urge of fame and fortune culminated in a store of mining knowledge gained in Africa, New Zealand, Australia, Canada and the United States which eventually took Mr. Jarrett to the top of the mining profession. In addition to managing the largest individual output west of the Rockies, he had the signal honor Rum stories . . .

"By the great Horn Spoon, those were gales," said the bosun.

"Not only could we not round the Horn, but the fury of the elements was driving us backwards up the coast of America. Only by the unusual feat of using the bowsprit as a rudder could I keep us from perishing on those inhospitable shores. At this point, a flock of gigantic albatrosses sank exhausted on the deck. Hastily reviving them with tins of our cargo, Lamb's Navy Rum, I harnessed them to the vessel and encouraged them to fly in the desired direction. The upshot was that our time for the Boston-Sacramento run stood as a record for thirty years."

"That's a Rum Story," said the unsuspicious guest.

"Thank you, sir. I should enjoy nothing better than a Lamb's Navy Rum."

Hello
There!

$5,000 sounds wonderful, doesn't it? What a thrill it should arrive in the mail as an unexpected inheritance! But as the total sum of life insurance in a man's estate, as the amount of money with which a widow will have to struggle along, why, it adds up to precious little! Yet I have known men — married men like you with comfortable incomes — look smug and pleased when they say they own five — or even ten — thousand dollars' worth of life insurance. I only ask them one question. If you were to die tomorrow, how long would that money last your family? Months. That's all. Just a few months.

And then? Could your wife earn her own living? Would you want her to? How about the kids' education? Would they all have to move to another neighbourhood?

None of these drastic acts are really necessary. How about letting me tell you about some of our generous plans? I'd be happy to show you how easily you can build up an ample insurance coverage at a minimum of expense. No obligation. Just call or write:

South Saanich Anglican Men's Club met on Tuesday last at the Parish Hall and listened to a most interesting account of a sea voyage. Brigadier Miles Smeeton, D.S.O., the speaker, told of his sailing a ketch, the "Pzu Hang," 15 tons and 42 feet in length, from England to Victoria. Starting from the Thames in London he followed the coast of France and Spain and then crossed the Atlantic taking a course via Madiera and the West Indies, calling in at many points. Passing through the Panama Canal he went out 600 miles into the Pacific Ocean and through the Juan de Fuca Straits to Esquimalt Harbour. The only other persons aboard were his wife and small daughter, except for a passenger they picked up between two of the islands. He was, however, very modest about such an accomplishment and delighted his audience with his keen sense of humor in relating many incidents of the trip which took a period of 12 months in 1951-1952.

FERRY SERVICE

NO better Christmas present could have been given to residents of the Gulf Islands and the Saanich Peninsula than the announcement from Ottawa this week that the C.P.R.'s policy on ferry transportation service in this district has been clarified and that the "Princess Elaine" will be operating between Vancouver, the Islands and Sidney early in the New Year.

Thousands of words have been written on this subject in the past and it is unnecessary today to outline the benefits which will accrue from this modern ferry service.

But we should all realize that the C.P.R. has now done its part. The company is providing the vessel and an adequate one too. The federal government has provided the wharves at heavy cost. The responsibility now rests on the shoulders of residents of this marine area to see that the service is well patronized. Let us all do our utmost to ensure that the "Elaine" carries a large complement of passengers on every trip. Let us make sure the vessel is so busy that her owners will operate her on a daily service. In this way the benefits of modern fast ferry service will be fully realized by all.

CENTRAL SAANICH ELECTION

RATEPAYERS of Central Saanich are well satisfied with the conduct of their municipal affairs during the past year. At the annual election on Saturday they returned to office the same gentlemen whose terms were expiring.

The Review is pleased to extend its congratulations to Reeve Pickles and Councillors Michell and Lamont who have all served the municipality since its formation. It was a vote of confidence in these gentlemen which swept them back into office on Saturday. They must have done a satisfactory job or they would not have been re-elected by such substantial majorities.

This newspaper was also pleased at the result of the referendum regarding library service. No municipal area should be without good reading. We will watch for early delivery of books by bookmobile in Central Saanich and expect to see the delivery truck well patronized.

FUTURE IS UNCLOUDED

RATEPAYERS of Sidney went to the polls in large numbers last Thursday and settled for all time and eternity a previously controversial issue. In a democratic way the voters approved of the stand taken by the provincial government several months ago in granting incorporation of the Village of Sidney.

The government at that time acted on a petition which had been signed by a majority of Sidney residents. Some candidates contesting the first election stated in a straightforward way that they approved of the government's stand on incorporation for Sidney. Some others maintained, with equal straightforwardness, that the village area should have been larger and a vote taken. Results of the election saw six men who stood behind the government in this regard head the polls with the non-incorporationists dragging far behind.

It's a good thing to clear the air occasionally. The old bogey of the wisdom of incorporation has now been laid at rest permanently.

The Review wishes to congratulate all the candidates, the winners and the losers alike. They all fought a clean and businesslike campaign. We want to single out for special mention Joseph Bilgeri. He was defeated by a casting vote which the returning officer was compelled to make. He took his defeat in a most sportsmanlike manner and we hope to see him run for village office again at some future date.

GRATIFYING RESPONSE

Editor, Review, Sir:

The response of the people of the district to our card party in aid of the Sidney and North Saanich Fire Brigade and the auction in aid of the Protestant Orphanage was most gratifying. We were certainly pleased to find we had 26 tables in play on Saturday, Dec. 13.

Our cheque will shortly be delivered to the firemen and arrangements will be made for a daily supply of milk to the orphanage, according to their needs. I would like to say "thank you" to all our friends who helped us so generously. A total of $84 was realized by the sale of articles donated.

Thank you, and Season's Greetings to you all.

N. SAANICH SERVICE CLUB, Joseph H. Nunn, Secretary-treasurer, Dec. 16, 1952.

WELL SATISFIED

Editor, Review, Sir:

It gave me a great deal of satisfaction to hear the result of the election of officers for the Village of Sidney and I wish to congratulate the five who were elected. I had little doubt of the good sense of the voters and now believe that we are away to a good start in home government.

To those who were defeated I feel that we have to thank them for their interest in their own affairs and feel sure that they would have worked for the advancement of this community even if most of them thought the methods used in the inauguration were not proper. Personally, I thought it best if a vote had been taken.

However, we are all for Sidney and I am sure that only fair criticism will be forthcoming in the future. Let us all do our best to assist the commissioners in their task in furthering the progress of Sidney and all be boosters for a real progressive village.

I look forward to seeing lights on our streets as they are not only safeguards to pedestrians but are now considered good insurance against thefts and vandalism. More porch lights at night will add to the pleasure and profit to us all. To those who use more than 60 kilowatts a month the cost is less than 30 cents a month if they leave their porch lights on for six hours every night. Let's leave them on and brighten up our streets.

May I offer my best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you, sir, the staff of The Review, who have done a real good job through the year, and to all your readers.

CHAS. W. BANKS, Sidney, B.C., December, 1952.

VILLAGE ELECTION

Editor, Review, Sir:

I would thank you if you would be good enough to print this letter in the Review, with reference to the election leaflet circulated on the eve of the Village election also appearing in the Review dated Dec. 10 and endorsed by six candidates seeking election as Commissioners.

I cannot agree with their method of gaining election. For instance, they say it would be unthinkable to elect Commissioners who would pay themselves salaries and improve their own standard of living from the public purse.

To be fair to the Gentlemen who signed my paper and to those who voted for me, also myself as a candidate, I have a right to know who these men referred to are. Would the six candidates whose names appear on the leaflet or any of their signers, state through the Review who these men are?

As far as serving without salary or expenses, it means nothing. It would have been more gentlemanly if

Costly Carelessness

About one fire in every four is started by someone walking off and leaving a cigarette unattended, or throwing away a lighted cigarette in the bush, or smoking in bed. Last year 476 of the 1,738 fires that occurred in Manitoba were caused by careless smoking habits—twice as many as originated from any other single cause.

T. T. SPORTS

(By Karl Wylie)

Last Sunday the local soccer squad was downed by the superior forces of the Eagles. In a wet and slippery game played at Central Park, Sidney Teen Town were beaten in their 11th league game, 8-2.

The game was marked by continual upsets and poor kicking on the wet field. The first Sidney goal scored was due to the wet ball as it slipped through the hands of the defending netminder.

The Eagles scored very early in the game and at the end of the first half the Eagles enjoyed a good margin in the score as Sidney had scored only once. During the second half the local's defense tightened up and Eagles did not score once while the Sidney forwards netted one tally.

The marksmen for the Eagles were Ron Hurley and Gordon Sellars who each scored singletons, Jack Harding who chalked up two points and Don Gillian, who was easily the ace of the game, netted a total of four points.

The Eagle manager has said that the village has a good little team and one to be proud of. He believes with a little more finish on the forward line that the team will be a real threat to the Eagles' second place slot in the second half of the season.

After the game both teams joined at the Eagles Hall and were feasted by the Eagles Youth Guidance Committee under the chairmanship of Ernie Mottishaw.

Team lineups follow: Eagles—Ron Hurley, Jack Harding, Gordon Sellars, Don Gillian, Jim Stothard, Dave Unwin, Dave Edgar, Monty Little, Fred Curtiss, Alan Stonehouse, Bill Hussey and Walter Peterson.

Teen Town—Dave Brown, Harold Jacobsen, Don Stenton, Bob Gilbert, Hubert Larsen, Tony Gambrell, Jim Pearson, George Holt, Martin Cooper, Robert Harris, Dave Gray, Don Norbury, Karl Wylie and Wilf Humphries.

Next Sunday's game will be played at the Sidney Memorial Park starting at 2 p.m. This game will be played also with the Eagles and will be the last game of the first half of the season.

The next big game of interest will be an exhibition game to be played on Boxing Day, Dec. 26; the Teen Towners against the "Old Boys". This promises to be quite a game as one will see how the game was played in the good old days.

Plans are being discussed concerning a trip up-island to Lady-smith to engage several other Teen Town soccer teams in an exhibition series.

On seeing the above heading, many people will neglect to read further, or after reading, fail to take immediate active interest because of Christmas activities.

Such reaction is fully understood by the organizers of this project, but it is gratifying that in many places the public is realizing the value of this essential work. The idea that preparedness may prove to be unnecessary should not be permitted to act as a deterrent. Attention must be drawn to and kept in mind that should necessity arise for dealing they had waited until they were elected.

In regards to platform or plans it is not correct to say that I concealed them. They were discussed freely with all who were interested in knowing same.

WILL TRY AGAIN

Editor, Review, Sir:

I wish to thank all those who supported and helped me through the village election campaign. I think my friends were surprised that I was defeated but we will do better next fall, I hope.

It wasn't that I wanted to be elected just to be a commissioner. No, I wanted to be a faithful servant of the Sidney people. But the people have now spoken and I accept their verdict.

I want to congratulate the five winning gentlemen, hoping they will do their best for the advancement of Sidney.

My dear friends, I will not sit back and let things go but will keep in close contact with all our village affairs. I promise you that you will hear from time to time my comments on things done or not done. Faithful and not discouraged,

JOE BILGERI, Sidney, B.C., Dec. 16, 1952.

At Brentwood Bolster topped the poll, with Michell close second. Lamont and Whitehouse were the voters' choice in Saanichton, while Michell and Bolster shared the honors at Keating.

a man who really loved people, especially children."

We were interested in Jim Anderson's good works because we had heard so much about him, but we had come to hear what made Litch click so enterprisingly.

"You came to Salt Spring to follow your trade as a carpenter?" I asked.

HAND TO MOUTH

"No, I was nothing but a hammer and saw man. We grew strawberries and had a cow. We came here from the mainland when the future seemed hopeless. We just 'holed in', living from hand to mouth. To keep myself busy I bought a mail-order course in building construction and architecture. Somehow I stuck it through; I couldn't afford to waste the money I'd paid for it. I got a job with my father-in-law to build that stone seat on the Ganges waterfront by the cenotaph.

"Other jobs followed. Soon I was busy as a carpenter and all-around man on construction. We bought this abandoned jam factory because my wife wanted to be among people. Some day we plan to build here in Ganges. We're going to have the newest radiant-heat ideas. Such a house would be different from the simple, clean little shack where old Jim Anderson used to live."

He was off again about that remarkable colored man. This time we let him go.

Jim Anderson, as the Bowdens remembered him, was a tall, straight negro in his seventies. "His character and kindly ways attracted us. We welcomed every chance to talk with him," Mrs. Bowden said.

BAREFOOT WALK

"One of Jim's habits was a 10-mile walk over the ridge between his home on the Isabella Point Road and Ganges. He used to carry his boots either in his hand or strung around his neck. One day he had worn new boots; they had hurt him so he took them off for comfort. After that he reversed the process by walking barefoot and taking along his boots for emergency use only.

"He slept in the kitchen of his home and although it was bare it was always tidy," Mrs. Bowden went Vernon, B.C., where she has been teaching. She will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Akerman.

Also home for Christmas are Gerald Howard, Dorothy Patience, Myrtle Bambrick and Freda New at Galiano.

Annual meeting of the Women's Guild of St. Andrew's Church at Sidney took place in the rectory on Wednesday evening. Officers elected for the coming year included: president, Mrs. J. J. White; vice-president, Mrs. C. Ward; secretary, Mrs. F. F. King; treasurer, Mrs. J. Mitchell.

The evening branch of the Holy Trinity and St. Andrew's churches also held its annual meeting this week. On Wednesday evening Miss E. Gwynne was elected president of the group. Other officers included: first vice-president, Mrs. T. M. Hughes; second vice-president, Miss C. Belson; secretary, Mrs. H. G. Horth; treasurer, Miss Moses; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. W. Beswick; Little Helpers' secretary, Mrs. G. Few; E.C.D. secretary, Miss E. Whiting; united thank offering secretary, Miss G. Cochran.

The annual Christmas concert of the Pender Island school was staged in the Hope Bay Hall on Thursday evening of last week. Under the direction of the teachers, Miss Maude Dickinson and Miss Florence Hand, the 60 pupils ran through an extensive routine. Participants in the entertainment included Fred Johnston, Norris Amies, Bob Johnston, Mariel Corbett, Beth Clague, June Bowerman, Leslie Bowerman. Acting as chairman was F. C. Smith, while W. B. Johnston was accompanist throughout. Others commended among the entertainers included Joyce Clague, Mary Day and June Bowerman.

25 YEARS AGO

A very successful bazaar and sale of work was held at Hope Bay Hall on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Young People's Society. In charge of the stall were Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Miss Beth Brackett, the Misses Bowerman, Mrs. S. P. Corbett, Mrs. William Mollison and Mrs. Fry.

Mr. Murch, of the Cariboo district, on. "He had just a single bed. I remember him best playing his guitar, which he loved to do, even when he was alone. I can still see his long bony fingers plucking at the strings, bringing out music that touched the heart!"

Litch Bowden took up the Jim Anderson narrative whenever his wife paused. "Jim was always up before sunrise because his old mammy had once told him never to let the sun beat him. His many owned most of Ganges in the early days and Jim remembered many boyhood sights including a fight between Indians in Ganges Harbor, and another between wild cattle where the Trading Company store now stands. When we asked him why he didn't sell his Fulford place and live close to Ganges again he said: 'If ah sold that beautiful place ma old mammy would come back to me in the night!' So he continued his walks to Ganges right up to the time he was missed—and found lying dead in the bush."

"He used to bring eggs into Ganges," Mrs. Bowden said. "He told us he once brought some in when the egg market was bad and had fun throwing them at a tree rather than accept 10 cents a dozen."

THRILLING SIGHT

When Steph and I walked out the Isabella Point Road along Fulford Harbor a week or so later we stopped over at Jim Anderson's place to eat our sandwiches. It was some time before we began to eat, so thrilled were we at what we saw. It was no less than a man's life speaking to us from beyond the grave with the eloquence of vivid grass, wild flowers, stately trees and a running brook, all so perfectly composed as to stir the emotions like a great work of art.

The place also had its practical side. Beside the brook that bubbled down to the sea, was a large round table that revolved. To serve themselves, picnickers had only to turn it. A metal tub for fires avoided damage to surrounding woods. A teeter-totter invited children as did a flower-bordered lookout with rustic steps and a merry-go-round plank that pivoted atop a cedar stump. There were seats under the cedars, alders and maples, restrooms hidden in thickets down by the beach.

What Jim did with trees by topping, pruning, planting and training, was an artistic miracle. Looking up the narrow valley of sheep-clipped green grass, dotted with clumps of sword fern, you saw a majestic climax of evergreens at the hill crest. Looking down towards the sea you saw graceful dogwood trees, laburnums and maples shading lilacs-of-the-valley and wild flowers. Jim Anderson had put here a sign which spoke truly. "The Travellers Rest Where a Warm Welcome Awaits You."

"This visit," Steph said, "has been like an interview with that big-hearted colored man. I can almost hear him saying to us: 'Be generous with beauty. Encourage happiness in the open. Enjoy simplicity in work and play!'"

The Review's Book Review

"Nine O'Clock Gun", by Roland Wild. Cassell. 224 pp. $3.

This is a strange submission from a British publisher. It is the story of the City of Vancouver, written into a novel. The story is light and easily assimilated, while introducing across the continent and Vancouver was Granville a young Scot left "Gastown".

When the Canadian Pacific Railway was being pushed the reader to main of the lesser known features of the early days of his homeland and set out for the New World. His progress westwards was unrelenting. He had a fixation that he must reach the west. Having ultimately arrived in the pioneer Vancouver city. He watched it grow and prosper and grew and prospered in its wake.

The various misfortunes that struck his family might well occur in real life, but it is not likely. The story, however, is that of Vancouver and not of the characters depicted.

The first election described is reminiscent of the early recollections of many living in these parts today. The slogan of the mayoralty candidate, who successfully waged his campaign, was "vote right and vote often." It is such amusing incidents of the early life of the city that make the book more than averagely interesting.

The story of the pioneer of the great western city is interesting. The story of the development of a shanty town into Vancouver is the real significance of the book. To those living here on the coast the territory is near enough to home to give the book an extra attraction.—F.G.R.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Deep Cove Social Club held its annual meeting in the club hall last Friday. Mrs. R. Jackson announced her resignation from the office of president. New president of the auxiliary is Mrs. Derriek. Also elected were: vice-president, Mrs. Cresswell, and secretary, Mrs. Orange.

Two games of basketball were played in the Saanichton Agricultural hall on Monday evening. The two Saanichton teams balanced the honors when one won and one lost. Players were J. Brooks, G. Lamm, R. McKay, E. Buckle, J. Nimmo, A. Buckle, R. Crawford, B. McNally, M. Lamm and J. Lamm.

Six inches of snow blanketed the area this week. At Saturday are drifts many feet in depth and winter sports are in full swing.

DEEP COVE

'Tis well to sing Madrona's praise
When summer skies are blue,
When lovely golden autumn days
Paint tints of every hue.

But what when stormy rain clouds lower
And wintry winds blow cold;
When angry waters lash the shore
And mists the hills enfold?

'Tis true, some days are dull and drear;
But others dazzling bright
Make hills and mountains stand out clear,
Clothed in majestic white.

Then calls the red fire's leaping flame
To sit and rest awhile.
Sweet music, friends, a hard fought game
The leisure hours beguile.

And soon there comes the glorious day
When all the earth doth sing,
And hedgerows bright and flowers gay
Chorus, "Rejoice, 'Tis Spring!"
—Mary B. Howroyd.

SAANICH PENINSULA
BRANCH NO. 37
LEGION
NEWS
(By William Stewart)

The regular monthly meeting of Saanich Peninsula branch No. 37,
Canadian Legion, was held in Mills Road Hall on Monday evening, Dec.
8 with the president, Com J. L.
Martin, in the chair. The customary silent tribute was observed.

After the general business of the meeting had been concluded, a motion picture on wild life and the aborigines of Australia was shown to the branch by I. S. Day, of Victoria. Mr. Day also had many relics and specimens which he had brought with him.

This show proved very interesting to the many members and ladies present. An effort will be made to bring Mr. Day out to this district again so that the general public and children may have an opportunity to see this very interesting picture; a tentative date of Monday afternoon, Dec. 29, at 2.30 has been set and I hope to have further news on this matter for next week.

The New Year party tickets are now available and all members are requested to get in touch with Com.
Warren Burrows at Sidney 351X as soon as possible as only a limited number are available. An orchestra has been hired and dinner catering arrangements have been made. The price of this event will be $6 a couple.
The party will be held in Mills Road branch or to the office of the Custodian of Enemy Property, Department of the Secretary of State, Ottawa, are required to forward such notice to the War Claims Commission, Ottawa, Canada, prior to December 31, 1953. No claim will be considered unless notice thereof has been received by the commission by that date.

2. Every notice of claim should contain (a) the full name and address of the claimant, and particulars of the claimant's national status or of service in World War II with the armed forces of Canada; and (b) the nature and particulars of the claim and the date and circumstances of the loss, injury or maltreatment.

3. Notice of claim is required for the purpose of preliminary information only, and the War Claims Commission may require the filing of a formal claim, duly verified, before assigning any claim for adjudication.

Loss or Damage
The War Claims Commission, established to inquire into and report upon claims by Canadians arising out of World War II, gives notice in respect of such claims as may be payable from the War Claims Fund:

1. Notice of claim in respect of maltreatment, personal injury, death or loss of property must be received by the commission not later than December 31, 1953. Persons who have not already given notice of their claims to the War Claims

Members are reminded that the annual children's Christmas party will be held in Mills Road Hall on Monday evening, Dec. 22, instead of Saturday, Dec. 20, as was previously announced. All members who have their children registered are asked to make sure that this date is kept open so that they may bring the children. The party will commence at 7.30 p.m.

Notice
I wish to thank all those voters of Sidney, who supported my candidacy in the recent election.
The election is over and I think you have a competent Board of Commissioners to look after the affairs of our village. Let us forget the unsavory doings in connection with the contest and give them our full support.

Teachers Told Of Value Of Their Organization

An early taste of Christmas turkey was placed before the Saanich Teachers' Association when they met at the Oak Bay Beach Hotel for their December meeting.

Bern Holt, who is the local geographical representative on the central executive, was the guest speaker of the evening. He spoke mainly to the younger members of the profession, outlining the benefits obtained through membership in the B.C. Teachers' Federation and explaining the organization of the Federation. The focal point of activity, he said, is the local district association which at all times must actively scrutinize and criticize the work of the central executive. Criticism is a valuable form of support.

Mr. Holt pointed out that although maintenance of an adequate salary scale was an important aspect of the B.C.T.F., it was by no means the only aspect. The Federation keeps an eye on pension funds to the advantage of its members; it provides a security of tenure which helps to make teaching attractive; it offers an excellent medical insurance service, a benevolent fund for financial emergencies, and salary indemnity.

On the other hand, the B.C.T.F. maintains a strict vigilance in the matter of professional ethics among its members and constantly strives for higher standards in teacher-training.

Your executive, said Mr. Holt,
"would rather have you snoring than sleeping."

Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother has given permission for the robes worn by Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret at the coronation of their father, King George VI, to be shown in the United States. They will be included in a collection of representative coronation robes and regalia.

SERVICE CLUB NOTES

Card players from all parts of the Saanich Peninsula gathered at the North Saanich high school on Saturday evening last to compete for the turkeys and hams offered the winners of the "500" card party. The turkeys were won by Mrs. W. Butler and Sidney Roberts. The hams were won by Mrs. Gaul and T. Moulson. E. J. Smith and H. E. Nunn were in charge of the cards with 26 tables in play.

Refreshments, prepared under the direction of Mrs. C. W. King and Mrs. C. R. Nunn, were served by a group of willing helpers, following which the auction sale in aid of the Protestant Orphanage was held. A splendid array of articles of all kinds, every article a donation, was sold for a total of $84.

During the sale Mrs. O. Thomas, one of the original members of the North Saanich Service Club, drew the winning ticket for the turkey draw. The ham was won by F. Peake and H. Rowbottom, James Island, won a box of apples. The turkey draw was under the direction of C. R. "Bud" Nunn.

T. McHarry was the lucky winner of the 27-pound turkey.

The auction committee, under the direction of J. H. Nunn, is most grateful for the wonderful response to their request for donations and the splendid results of the sale. C. W. King, president of the club, stated that he was pleased "that we would have a nice donation for the Sidney and North Saanich Fire Brigade and a good supply of milk for the orphans. These organizations will be hearing from us very shortly."

1951 AUSTIN A-40

Sensationally popular in the small car field, is this 4-Door Sedan in new condition, which we have to offer. It is grey with contrasting blue leather upholstery. Foiled again!

YOU PROBABLY use aluminum foil in your own kitchen as a handy material for wrapping food of all kinds. Now from California comes word that aluminum foil is being used to wrap ready-cooked enchiladas. Lovers of this highly seasoned Mexican dish can now simply pop them in the oven to heat, then serve them in their aluminum containers.

Food and aluminum go naturally together. From the hygienic milkers used in modern dairies to the utensils in hospitals and your own home, aluminum is prized for the way it protects the purity, color and flavor of food. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

Confidence In Chairman Voted By School Board

Recent press criticism of the conduct of meetings of Saanich school board was raised for discussion at Monday's meeting by Trustee Sydney Pickles of Central Saanich. Chairman G. L. A motion, presented by Trustee R. Sinkinson and seconded by Mr. Pickles, expressed confidence in the chairman's conduct of board business both in committee and in open meeting. The motion carried unanimously.

Quarter Century Of Service Is Given Recognition

Members of St. Mark's Chancel Guild were hosts recently at a tea given by them in honor of Mrs. G. B. Young, who has so conscientiously and untiringly acted as organist of St. Mark's church, Salt

Spring Island. The tea was held at the rectory where Ven. and Mrs. G. H. Holmes received the many guests and on arrival the guest of honor was presented by the president, Mrs. F. C. Turner, with a corsage from the members of the guild.

The tea was served under the management of Mrs. Cecil Springfield, Mrs. J. H. Carvosso, Mrs. L. S. Nicholson, Mrs. T. A. Millner, Miss Frena Aitkens. The lace-covered table, at which Mrs. O. Leigh-Spencer, Mrs. A. B. Cartwright and Mrs. V. C. Morris presided, was centred with a large crystal bowl of artistically arranged sprays of yellow jasmine, on the table surrounding were sprigs of flowering laurustinus and autumn-tinted blackberry leaves, for the charming floral decoration Mrs. Carvosso was entirely responsible.

Reads Address

Archdeacon Holmes, in a short speech, paid tribute to Mrs. Young and the work she had accomplished as organist, he then read the illuminated address, which took the form of the following letter: "Dear

Mrs. Young, your many friends of St. Mark's church desire to express to you in a tangible way our sincere appreciation of the faithful work you have done during the past 25 years as organist of St. Mark's. We ask you to accept therefore this wrist watch, which we hope will be a constant reminder of our affection and regard. We also pray that you may be spared to continue to use your talents for the glory of God and the enrichment of our services of public worship. On behalf of the congregation, signed G. H. Holmes, rector; J. H. Carvosso, warden; Peter Cartwright, warden; E. S. Turner, president of the guild."

The presentation was then made by the archdeacon and graciously acknowledged by the recipient.

The illuminated address was the work of Miss Catherine Popham.

Mrs. Adams New President Of Island Auxiliary

The annual meeting of the Salt Spring Island Women's Auxiliary was held on Friday afternoon in the parish room. Mrs. G. R. Holmes presided and, with Archdeacon Holmes, took the devotional period. Mrs. A. R. Price reported purchasing pillowcases to be stamped and embroidered for next year's sale. Reports were read from the Vesuvius Bay Circle, Junior W.A. branch, secretary, treasurer, and secretaries and conveners of other affiliated organizations.

At the election of officers, Mrs. Edward Adams was named president; first vice-president, Mrs. G. H. Holmes; second vice-president, Mrs. F. H. Baker; secretary, Mrs. W. M. Palmer; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Price; Dorcas committee, Mrs. W.

Strong Objection Taken By Council To Reports

Central Saanich council has expressed strong objection to a recent statement during the election campaign that the municipal clerk, J. W. Ismay, had been instructed not to give out any financial information.

At a meeting on Tuesday morning the council stated that this allegation, which had been made "publicly", was wholly untrue.

In a statement released on Tuesday the council reported that "the municipal clerk had submitted a report in which it was stated that on no occasion has anyone come into the office and requested such information and if they had that all available information would have been given to them. It may further be added that our duly accredited balance sheets have been regularly published in the past and that copies are available at the municipal office upon request by any ratepayer."

ROTARIANS HEAR OF DEVELOPMENT OF MOUNTIES FROM EARLY DAYS

At the weekly dinner meeting of the Sidney Rotary Club on Wednesday evening last, the guest speaker was Staff-Sgt. D. G. Ashby, R.C.M.P., of Victoria.

A field man with the force since 1926, the speaker enlivened the well-known story of the Northwest Mounted-Cum-R.C.M.P. with interesting personal anecdotes associated with this unique service.

Beginning the historical outline with the Hudson Bay Charter from King Charles II in 1670, the speaker said those huge territories then involved became the focal point of the Dominion in 1869, with Manitoba joining in 1870, all referred to as the North West Territories.

These were the days of American whisky runners trading with Indians with resultant murders and massacres. Ottawa decided to bring law and order, passing a bill in 1872 and sending 300 mounted men to the area, with a law prohibiting the sale of liquor to Indians.

A fort was set up near Lethbridge and another near Edmonton, with the few remaining troops spread over that vast territory, with lots of obstacles to overcome. However, the red coat of the Mounties was soon respected by the Indians and a reputation of goodwill was built up, at a time when 240 of the Seventh United States Cavalry had been annihilated; and treaty number seven was signed in September, 1877.

Black Moon and Sitting Bull tried to wreck the good work by attempting to undermine the loyalty of Chief Crowfoot but he replied, "I will be the first to sign and the last to break my word", and he and his "Prairie Indians" remained loyal to the Crown.

Terror Period

From 1895 until 1900, at Skagway, was the period of terror under Soapy Smith, when everyone was checked in and out of the Yukon. The Mounties made a good showing against tremendous odds, four men being frozen to death en route from Fort Macpherson to Dawson City in 1911. About this time King Edward VII honored the force with the prefix "Royal" and since then representatives have been present at the coronation and similar ceremonies, and detachments have fought in the various wars.

The Winnipeg strike, described by the speaker as "the first strike of Communist tendencies", was broken by the R.C.M.P. In 1920 it was decided to make the force Dominion-wide, and they then absorbed the Ottawa force and a general amalgamation went on under the present title of R.C.M.P., only Ontario and Quebec now still maintaining their own provincial forces.

The original number of 300 men has now grown to 8,000 and nearly 1,000 of these are in B.C. Their musical rides are in much demand and very soon they will be saddling-up again for next year's coronation, which the speaker described as "no picnic, since the boys mount at 7.30 in the morning and remain mounted until perhaps 7.30 at night with only a couple of candy bars to sustain each man."

Modern Science

Modern science has added to the efficiency of fighting crime and the force now has fully-maintained crime laboratories at Regina and Rockcliffe.

President H. M. Tobin thanked the speaker for his very interesting address and said he himself remembered some of the border hot spots of the old Indian "tootin'-shootin'" days.

Guests included G. F. Kent and F. A. Wilde of the local R.C.M.P.; Ross Main, Laverne M. Sands, Jack MacKay, Ralph E. Snider, A. I. Frewing, Thomas Little, James Stewart, Len Hobbs and Arthur Brown, of Victoria; Eric James, son of member Bill James of Sidney. J. Pow, of Sidney, was welcomed as a new member.

The president reported that the voting for local community work next year supported many projects, one of which was a beach park on the waterfront. President H. M. Tobin was in the chair.

In Canada there are 5,300,000 workers. Of them 1,100,000 belong to unions of one sort or another.

The Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

This is the season when excessive water in the garden can do much harm to plants. Most of our garden plants strenuously object to standing in a water-logged soil during winter months. Among fruits, strawberries and raspberries are offended the most by this condition. Logans and other brambles will tolerate more abuse than strawberry and raspberry plants but all can be seriously affected by "wet feet".

A garden area that is inclined to lay wet in winter should be tile drained every 15 or 20 feet. Even after this is done it may be necessary to remove surface water with temporary ditches. Our Chinese gardening friends recognize the importance of this procedure and grow their winter crops on raised beds.

While fall planting of trees and shrubs is advisable, yet trees should not be placed in dug holes that fill with water. Do everything you can to get rid of surplus water quickly at this season. This does not mean that your garden soil will be drier next summer because of taking away surplus water now. There are many other factors influencing the amount of summer moisture in garden soils. These will be discussed from time to time.

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S PUZZLE:

Bulb Rotations

Tulips, daffodils and iris are troublesome in bulb rotations because they harbour serious insects and diseases and promote varietal mixtures. Elimination of volunteers is therefore desirable. Cultivation and leaving down to sod are ineffectual. Herbicides that have been tried include Varsol 3139, stove oil, T.C.A. (90 per cent sodium salt) and 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T. Of these 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T have given best results but very high concentrations are necessary and the cost is relatively high. A single application at flowering time with a spray solution containing 20 pounds 2,4-D plus 24 pounds 2,4,5-T per 100 gallons of water at a rate sufficient to wet the foliage was effective in eliminating iris.

Lesser concentrations or when the ingredients are used slightly seem to be much less effective.

Daffodils were eliminated with a single spray of 2,4,5-T wetted with 24 pounds of the acid equivalent in 100 gallons of water. None of the sprays tried have been satisfactory on tulips.

Total number of pelts landed at St. John's, Nfld., from the 1952 seal hunt was 85,245 compared with 184,000 in 1951.

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "dried-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter.

Founder with Foresight

In the days when British Columbia cities were being hewn out of giant forest stands, few men foresaw the tremendous future in store for Canada's Pacific Province.

One man who did was William Braid. In 1904, he founded the Province's first distillery—The British Columbia Distillery Company Limited in New Westminster.

At a time when that city's population was a mere nine thousand, William Braid was laying the firm foundations... setting the policy of quality... for an industry that has played an increasingly important part in B.C.'s economic development.

Since 1904, the Company has steadily expanded its facilities to meet the growing demand for its quality products at home and in the markets of the world.

Today, the modern British Columbia Distillery on New Westminster's Braid Street stands as tangible evidence of the foresight of its founder—William Braid.

About Cars and Safety

Much has been said recently in the local press on the matter of cars and safety. One authority states that a car should be built to travel 100 m.p.h. in order to be safe at 50 m.p.h. That reasoning sounds as logical as insisting that a family of three needs a ten-room house in order to live comfortably. Assuming that a car is in the hands of a capable driver, the first thing that makes a car primarily safe is design. Sheer weight, excessive size, or an over abundance of power have nothing to do with safety. To prove our point drive any car you choose around a corner at a given speed, then next test the Hillman in exactly the same way... and notice the difference, see how the Hillman holds the road, how it gives you that sense of being in control of the car all the time. The secret of the Hillman's road holding qualities go back to design... a design that gives strength without undue weight, roominess without bulk... and ample speed without the power of a light airplane engine. If you wish to travel at 100 m.p.h. we will sell you something other than a Hillman, but remember these facts... THE AVERAGE PASSENGER CAR LOAD IN NORTH AMERICA IS 1.7 PERSONS... THE AVERAGE SPEED LESS THAN 30 M.P.H. No wonder you see so many Hillmans in Victoria and all across Canada... for Hillman is one of the few cars to give you Economy in purchase and in running costs... Roominess and Comfort... Smart Styling... AND THE MOST IMPORTANT THING OF ALL, SAFETY.

Turkey Sales Are Increasing

Following is the weekly egg and poultry market report:

Egg prices held steady here this week, after settling at slightly above par, shipment delivered levels, which are 48 cents and 45 cents; two carlots of this stock arriving this week. Local receipts show slight decreases and volume barely sufficient for an active demand, both through retail and shipping channels.

Turkey marketings are increasing and there is a fair volume on hand in coolers from producers and dealers, both frozen and chilled. Supply of broilers, fowl and heavy chicken sufficient for a good demand.

MINISTER OF PUBLIC WORKS OPENS ISLAND WATER SYSTEM

Prior to a ceremony marking the completion of the extension of the water main from Maxwell Lake, through Ganges, to Vesuvius Bay, which took place on Thursday, Dec. 11, on Salt Spring Island, the president and committee of the North Salt Spring Water Works District were hosts at a luncheon party held in Harbour House, when they entertained the minister of public works, Hon. P. A. Gagliardi; Deputy Minister Evan Jones, Alexander Robinson, president of Sealds Products, Vancouver; and G. Nesbitt, district engineer.

The president, Gavin C. Mount, was in the chair and trustees W. K. Wickens, V. Case Morris, P. D. Crofton, Colin F. Mount, T. A. Miller and Peter Cartwright were present. The president in his address outlined the work of the company from start to finish and Mr. Robinson dealt with the work as done from his point of view and described it as the best little bit of work he had seen in B.C.

Turns On Water

Following lunch the party proceeded to the terminal point where, in spite of drenching rain, a surprisingly large number of residents had gathered for the ceremony at which the minister of public works officiated and turned on the water, the force of which was demonstrated by Peter Cartwright. Mr. Gagliardi, who spoke on the subject of water and the great necessity it was to a community and indeed to everything in life, made a great impression on all who heard him.

Prior to returning to Victoria the party was shown some of the beauty spots of Salt Spring Island and visited the school at Ganges.

After 22 years of service, V. Case Morris has retired as manager of the water works district, his position has been taken over by Peter Cartwright. Mr. Morris will continue in carry on in the capacity of secretary.

Chrysanthemum Group Formed

The first meeting of the recently formed Salt Spring Island Chrysanthemum Association took place recently at the Log Cabin, Ganges.

The association is affiliated with the Amateur Chrysanthemum Association of Vancouver and District and its object is to foster the growing of these flowers among amateurs. Twenty-five residents have joined to date and the membership is now complete.

A. S. Huntingford was elected president and instructor. Others taking office were as follows: vice-president, Eric Dipple; secretary, Mrs. L. A. Bittancourt; treasurer, Austin Wells.

SUCCESSFUL GIFT STALL

A Christmas gift stall, convened by members of the Guild of Sunshine and held recently at Mount Bros. store, Ganges, realized over $40. The prize in the afternoon's contest, a bed jacket, was won by Miss Frena Aitkens.

The Detroit River which runs by Windsor, Ont., and Detroit, carries an average of 115,000,000 tons of shipping a year—greater tonnage than that of Suez, Panama and Kiel canals combined.

The pace of medical progress during the past seventy years is unequalled in all previous history. In fact, medical advance has been greater during the past five decades than in the preceding 5,000 years of recorded history. A diagnosis of typhoid fever, diphtheria, diabetes, anemia, and many other diseases no longer sounds a toll of death. Your physician has at hand a multitude of proved therapeutic agents which mean longer and happier life for all. Twentieth-century pharmaceuticals, many of which are extremely delicate in composition, require expert care in storing, compounding, and dispensing. That is the work for which we are prepared. Let us fill your next prescription.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF GALIANO LIGHT AND POWER CO. ENJOYED

The directors of the Galiano Light and Power Co. held their third annual banquet on Saturday, Dec. 6, at Cain Cottage.

Present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robson, Mrs. A. E. Scoones, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gammen, Miss Betty Scoones, Matthew Walker and Fred Clunes.

The banquet was followed by a dance at Galiano Hall but owing to the gale blowing that evening, Tester's orchestra of Ganges was unable to get over to Galiano. Music was supplied by Fred Weaver and John Scoones. The dance was, however, well attended.

Lucky tickets were drawn and the winners were Mrs. G. W. Georgeson, Hugh Walters, Mrs. A. O. Franks, and Carol Robson. Mr. and Mrs.

ing a few days in Victoria, visiting her mother, Mrs. A. R. Campbell.

Mrs. Earle Lockwood has returned to Ganges after a 10-day holiday in Vancouver, where she was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stuart. She also spent some days in Seattle, a guest at the Olympic.

Stanley Page won the spot dance and the door prize was won by Mrs. R. T. Blackwood. Mrs. A. E. Scoones, secretary of the company, had two of her tickets drawn but turned down her chances.

Refreshments were in the hands of the directors, assisted by Mrs. M. Backlund and Tom Carolan.

A NAME IS SOUGHT

The Review would be appreciative if "Dorothy" of Ganges would communicate again with this newspaper.

Last week Mrs. Dorothy ??? wrote and requested an additional copy of The Review because she is keeping copies of Leisure Islands Laughter. The newspaper was mailed to her. Somewhere between Sidney and Ganges, the name disappeared. The parcel wrapper was torn and her last name disappeared. The parcel was then returned to this office, minus the name.

Meanwhile her letter was destroyed in The Review office. If Dorothy would send her name to this office, the copy she seeks will be re-addressed to her.

IN OUR TIME

The pace of medical progress during the past seventy years is unequalled in all previous history. In fact, medical advance has been greater during the past five decades than in the preceding 5,000 years of recorded history. A diagnosis of typhoid fever, diphtheria, diabetes, anemia, and many other diseases no longer sounds a toll of death. Your physician has at hand a multitude of proved therapeutic agents which mean longer and happier life for all. Twentieth-century pharmaceuticals, many of which are extremely delicate in composition, require expert care in storing, compounding, and dispensing. That is the work for which we are prepared. Let us fill your next prescription.

We all come home for Christmas

...and this is the magic of Christmas—that even though miles and continents may separate us from our dear ones, in our hearts

LAST RITES FOR MURRAY MacLEOD

Funeral services for Murray D. MacLeod, aged 80, of 2838 Inlet Ave., were held on Tuesday, Dec. 9, at Chaplin's Funeral Chapel. Rev. Douglas Carr officiated. Interment followed at Royal Oak Burial Park. Members of Confederation Lodge, No. 116, A.F. and A.M., attended the graveside.

Mr. MacLeod leaves to mourn, his wife, Jean; four sons, Layton, at the family residence, and Charles, Donald and Eugene, all of Victoria, and five grandchildren. He was predeceased by a son, Robert, in 1932, and also his brother, James.

Also surviving are a sister and brother-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Layton, of Edmonton. A niece, Elizabeth Layton, is district health nurse for Sidney and the Gulf Islands.

Mr. MacLeod was a resident of this district for over 40 years. He was at one time in the grocery business in the Gorge area. He has been active for many years in church and municipal affairs.

He was called by death at home on Friday, Dec. 5.

SCORES HIT IN VICTORIA

Current presentation of the York Repertory Company at the York Theatre in Victoria has brought credit to the St. Luke's Players of Saanich.

Playing a prominent role in the hilarious farce is Constance Wright, valued member of the Saanich amateur company, who is a guest artist with the professional theatre.

Birthday Party For Sylvia Corbett

A very lovely birthday party was held recently at the home of Mrs. Alice Corbett, Clayton Road, in honor of her daughter, Sylvia's, ninth birthday. A lovely cake made by Mrs. R. Chudy decorated the centre of the table and the children's places were marked with colored bon-bons, which contained hats for each guest. The invited guests were: Sylvia Corbett, Ruby Hartshorne, Eddie Donald, Lucille Corbett, Barbara Chudy, Elaine Downey, Barbara Erickson, Deana Wilkining, Clifford Chudy, Shirley Corbett.

joyed wonderful "bones" supplied by the parents and "pop" donated by the pack.

There will be no more meetings until after the Christmas holidays. Until then, "A Merry Christmas" and "Good Hunting!"—Akela.

Miss Wright has appeared in many plays presented by St. Luke's company including the prize-winning viceman. It was in this part that entries in 1948, 1949, 1950 and 1951. Miss Wright has been with the Saanich company since 1948, when it was the Doncaster Players.

In the current production Miss Wright takes the part of Miss Skillon, upright and overpowering as the prominent member of the congregation in the village of Mertoncum-Middlewick. The audience was doubled with laughter throughout the performance.

Exemplary Miss Skillon, as the unfortunate onlooker in a series of untoward incidents, was exemplary.

Mary Hincks, as Ida, the maid, sustained a part, literature-devouring domestic role throughout. She shared the honors with Robert Tabor, who once again appeared before local audiences as an American ser-don, cannot be sustained beyond the end of the week. The entertainment value would justify an extended run.—F.G.R.

T. Anderson, Chalet Road, is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

The Deep Cove P.T.A. met at the school on Thursday, Dec. 11. A very interesting report was given by Mrs. Lannon on radio programs. Volunteers were needed for T.B. clinic on January 26. Mrs. Welkening had purchased gifts for pre-school children, these to be wrapped at her home. Costumes for concert will be sewed Monday night. It was agreed that an electric kettle be purchased by the P.T.A. Discussion also took place regarding dancing lessons being held in Deep Cove for the children. Christmas carols were sung. Accompanist was Mrs. Till. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grimsson, Maple Road, had their two sons christened at Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, Dec. 14. Rev. Roy Melville officiated. Miss G. Moses was godmother and John Grimsson godfather for Brian George. Miss Doris McKay and Ian Grimsson are godparents for Douglas John.

Sharyn Ridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ridge, Wains Road, a member of Florence Clough School of Dancing, has been taking part in the Santa Claus Show at the Royal Theatre, Victoria. Sharyn was in costume for the Spanish dance and has taken part in two performances every Saturday morning for the past three weeks. The proceeds from this show are for the Solarium.

TEEN TALK

(By Dave Brown)

The laxity of the council has not yet been entirely overcome by the establishment of new adult advisers. As usual, due to this fact, there is nothing of great importance to report.

The annual election for an entire council will be held January 10 at St. Andrew's Hall; polls open at 7.30. The returning officer, C. Anderson, is now accepting nominations for councilmen. Nomination papers must be signed by both the nominator and the nominee. Only one nomination per person will be allowed. There will be 11 vacant council seats as of January 1.

New membership cards have now arrived and are on sale for the 1953 season. Membership is $1. All soccer team members must have cards, properly signed and paid for by January 3. All members who are either nominees, nominators or voters must have cards by January 10.

The council wishes to extend sincere thanks to the following donors: Mr. Marshall, Wains Road; H. L.

Bevan, Deep Cove; Mr. Sterne, East Road; Mr. and Mrs. James, Ardmore Drive; Mr. Fowler, Coal Island. The campaign is progressing very favorably and donations are coming in quite steadily. Don't forget the big soccer game at Memorial Park on Boxing Day, December 26.
